THOMAS M. GOULD
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
W/D OF TN, MEMPHIS

December 30, 2005

RE: Thomas & Betts v. Hosea Project Movers
2:02cv2953-Ma

Dear Counsel:

It appears that in the above referenced cause the parties are unable to agree on the taxation of costs.

Therefore, pursuant to Rule 54.1 of the Local Rules for the Western District of Tennessee, the Clerk is required to assess costs, after notice and hearing. Accordingly, you are hereby notified that the Clerk of Court will tax costs on Thursday, January 12, 2006, 10:30 a.m., in the Clerk's office located in Room 242, Clifford Davis Federal Building, 167 North Main Street, Memphis, Tennessee. You may appear at that time and make any argument you believe relevant, but you are not required to attend. The Clerk of Court will accept any relevant citation of any law the parties wish to submit, but such submissions must be received no later than one week prior to the scheduled hearing. Your appearance at this hearing and your submission of relevant case citations is completely optional, and a party's or counsel's decision to not appear or to not submit relevant citations will not adversely affect the Clerk of Court's evaluation of how costs should be assessed.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Gould, Clerk of Court
